GRADUATION—YOUNG FARMERS 2018, TUTU

Fr Micheal McVerry sm with the happy Graduands.

After completing 3 years of training, 23 young men were graduated from Tutu Training Center in Fiji on the 19th July 2018.

Fr Micheal McVerry, the Director of the Center, congratulated the graduands and encouraged their parents to continue supporting the young men to carry on what they have begun in Tutu, in their homes and villages.

Some of the young men have already completed building their own houses and some are starting theirs in the villages. They are graduating with multi-life skills in farming, carpentry and human development.

The quest of honor was Mr David Kolitagane the permanent secretary for the Ministry of Agriculture. The New Zealand High commissioner, Mr. Jonathan Curr and his wife, Mrs Fololeni Curr, were also present. Also present were the Provincial, Fr Setefano Mataele sm, the representative from Caritas New Zealand and Caritas Australia, parents and friends of the graduands.
