"They strive to become, in the way of our Founder, effective instruments of Divine Mercy" (C 11)

Each day a member of one of the four Professed Branches gave an Input on what Fourviere meant to their Branch of the Society, and included stories of the early Marists who first came to implant the Church and the Society of Mary here in Fiji.

The Retreat itself was in Silence, but included a Group Sharing each afternoon on what had struck us in the Input of that day, and how it affected our own lives and commitment as Marists now at this time of our lives.

A wonderful spirit of unity, sharing, inspiration, and appreciation of our Marist Vocation and the Marist Family grew throughout the Retreat, and was commented on by all the participants.

We believe that this will lead us to working together with a deeper quality and in a deeper manner of appreciation, and that further good fruits will flow from this to the People of God whom we serve here in Fiji.
